CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TAKES INITIATIVE IN MATTER OF HIGHWAY

To Seek Part of Funds Soon to be at Disposal of State
Highway Commission—Ten Million Dollars to be Spent in Mississippi—C. of C. Active and Doing.

A large attendance marked the November regular monthly meeting of Bay St. Louis Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night, when policies for the organization's new year were outlined, including keeping in view such measures as the short cut road to New Orleans, installation of gas and such measures as have been fostered by the local commercial body.

But the main subject in discussion was the fact that the State had authorized the issuance of bonds in amount of five million dollars to match a like amount from the federal government; that ten million dollars would be available in the immediate future and that which was reserved for the procedure in the premises was adopted with a view of getting as much as possible such funds for local usage. It was pointed out that the Board of Supervisors naturally was on the job and possibly already active in the cause, even though the project is federal and out of their sphere, but the Chamber of Commerce, within its scope, and not wishing to usurp the authority of any other official body, must be up and doing.

The Chamber of Commerce is a county body, its activities are not only confined to the city but over Hancock and co-operating as well with the balance of the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

The manner of procedure was discussed in tentative outline and referred to the executive committee for immediate action.

Attention was also called to the arrival next Thursday morning on

GIVES BAIL ON CHARGE OF PERJURY

Mrs. Hursey, Widow—Well
Known Pearlinton Family
Indicted at Mobile.

Mrs. Abner Hursey widow of a ferry operator, and her son, William Hursey of Pearlinton, were released under bond at Biloxi Wednesday when arraigned before the United States commissioner on indictments charging conspiracy to commit perjury in a Mobile, Ala., ship scuttling case.

Attorney Fritche for the Hurseys said the matter for which his clients were indicted was "due to ignorance rather than intent."

The indictments against the Hurseys were returned at Mobile by the federal grand jury as an aftermath of the conviction of Captain John G. Murphy, Mobile ship owner, on a charge of conspiring to scuttle the steamer Rose Mary, owned by him.

Bond for each of the Hurseys was fixed at $1500.

Captain Murphy is at liberty on $25,000 bond on an appeal from a seven years' sentence and $5000 fine on the scuttling charge. He is also under indictment for perjury.

In the trial of Captain Murphy the department of justice disclosed Murphy had drawn $6000 from a Mobile bank and contended that Murphy paid alleged conspirators with his money. Murphy in his second trial, claimed he loaned $6000 to Captain Abner Hursey and produced a note alleged to have been signed by Captain Hursey for the amount.

Captain Hursey had died in February, 1931, and the government alleged his widow, Mrs. Abner Hursey, and her son, had conspired with Captain Murphy to conceal the usage of the $6000. Handwriting experts testified that the name of Captain Hursey was signed by his widow.

It has been proven ere this that he is especially fitted, both by experience and ability, to represent the general constituency and in more phases than one. His record is a long one of doing and will stand not only to his credit but will redound to the benefit of the people he has served so unflinchingly and unselfishly.

There is no man in Hancock county who has had more legislative experience than Mr. Genin. He has actively and faithfully served the people for years and his record is such that he has proven both a go-getter and a friend of this section. His incumbency has not been one of idleness, but his services have been interpreted of the trend of the times and imperative needs of his people; he has proven a friend of the commonwealth and his administration shows both remedial and constructive legislation.

TO HELP FEED POOR OF CITY

St. Margaret's Daughters
Meet and Resolve on Practical Plan and Immediate Relief

A well attended and enthusiastic meeting of the St. Margaret's Daughters was held at the St. Joseph's gym on Wednesday afternoon, and a constructive program was mapped out to help the poor of this city during the winter.

A "Food Package Shower" was arranged for Monday, November 23rd 1931, and those who can send a package should send it to the St. Joseph's gymnasium on that date between the hours of 9 A. M. and 3 P. M. and 7 and 9 P. M.

The hours of 9 A. M. and 3 P. M. were selected for the school children, so they could bring their package when they come to school.

The hours of 7 to 9 P. M. were selected so that working people could have a convenient time to bring their packages.

The St. Margaret's Daughters wish to have it clearly understood, that they are not asking for fancy or costly foods; what they want is non-perishable substantial food—the necessary kind.

This is a wonderful opportunity for every one to help the poor and it will not be costly to anyone. Send a package of non-perishable food, and no matter whether it is large or small it will be appreciated.

It is hoped that everyone will take an interest in this movement, send their food package and enjoy the happy feeling of knowing they have helped feed the hungry.

St. Margaret's Daughters will be glad to learn of any poor family in need of food. Communicate with any member of this organization. They will put their names on the list and see that they receive food.

PUPILS OF TAYLOR SCHOOL ENJOY PARTY GIVEN BY JAMES BRYAN

All Hallowe'en Party Friday
Afternoon Given on Occasion of Pupil's Departure

Pupils and friends of the R. W. Taylor Ward School enjoyed an All Hallowe'en party Friday afternoon given by Master James Bryan, on the eve of his departure for New Orleans where he will spend the winter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bryan, summer residents at Cedar Point.

Young James has been a pupil of the Taylor School during the season of the early fall for the past four years, and not only on the occasion of his return to New Orleans but because he has outgrown and outdistanced the course prescribed by Mrs. W. W. Stockstill's most efficient school, and would not return next fall, hence the party.

Mrs. Stockstill was assisted by Mrs. Bryan and other ladies of the school district in arranging the program and to its successful culmination. Ducking for apples was a most amusing feature and the decorations of the school interior added to the gala atmosphere of the occasion.

Refreshment of various kinds were served in superabundance and in all the party was declared one of the most enjoyable in the history of the young lives, as well as the grown-ups, fortunate to be present.

A vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Bryan who has been not only a true friend of the school and pupils out one of its most generous benefactors, and who said, even though in future she will no longer be a patron of the R. W. Taylor School, her two sons to go to Stanislaus in future, she will ever remain a booster and do all possible for the continued success of the little school that means so much to that section of Bay St. Louis.

At 12:00 o'clock, true to the time as per college schedules, the barbecue dinner, cooked overnight by the customary well-known chefs. The barbecue is one of the high features of the annual assembly and its enjoyment this season will be none the less than other years.

Another feature of the day, one of no less importance, will be the football game between Stanislaus and Comby High. Football is at its zenith now and both contending teams will attract much attention and interest.

In all Homecoming Day at St. Stanislaus is an event of the year and Sunday will be another red letter day both in the annals of the history of both Bay St. Louis and St. Stanislaus College. Bro. Peter, president feels greatly encouraged over the prospects for a large attendance and as a whole an unparalleled success.

With true spirit of progressiveness, the town of Waveland announces its plan to hardsurface a number of the streets of that town, possibly covering its intention of issuing bonds for miles.

Accordingly, the city is advertising its intention of issuing bonds for the purpose in the amount of $25,000, Tuesday, December 8, "or such thereof, as may be necessary and legal, with interest at the rate of not more than 6 per cent per annum."

The authorities have been planning this improvement for some time and wished to carry out their plans at the best and most opportune time, besides the work, which is very necessary, will give considerable work to the unemployed of that section.

At present the work of laying curbs and curb and gutter along Waveland avenue is in progress, the town doing this work from ready funds and is the preliminary start for the big proposed improvement. Both the Board of Mayor and Aldermen and the people of our sister city are to be congratulated on the occasion of their enterprise.

On Thursday night, November 12 at the Central School, The Zander-Gump wedding will be produced under the auspices of the P. T. A. This promises to be an outstanding event of the season during the performance there will be seen such important people as the much loved Mayor of Bay St. Louis as Lord Plushbottom: The President of the Board of Supervisors as Moon Mullins; A prominent New Orleans History Prof. as a Katzenjammer Kid; President of the King's Daughters, as Mamma Katzenjammer, and many other of the town's outstanding personalities as the well known funny paper characters.

A large crowd is expected to attend the performance where there will be a million dollars worth of fun at popular prices.

OUR NAVAL PROGRAM

THE policy of the United States has been, according to official announcements, to maintain a navy as powerful as that of any other country. In his recent Navy Day address President Hoover says that our "first necessity" is "the maintenance of a Navy so efficient and strong that, in conjunction with our Army no enemy may ever invade our country."

That viewpoint is conservative and should represent the irreducible minimum of our naval strength but that is not necessarily a Navy as strong as that of any other power. A defensive navy would be powerless in case of conflict with Japan, for example, or any other country with a fairly strong navy situated some distance from our shores.

There should be no criticism, however, of the following paragraph from President Hoover's address: "Our problem is to assure the adjustment of our forces to the minimum based upon the outlook in the world; to strive for lower armament throughout the world; to promote good will among nations; to conduct our military activities with rigid economy; to prevent extremists on one side from undermining the public will to support our necessary forces, and to prevent extremists on the other side from waste of public funds."

CHAIN STORE TAXES.

THE right of a state to tax chain stores has been upheld by the United States Supreme Court in two decisions, involving two different kinds of taxation.

In May the Indiana tax was upheld, which fixed a graduated license tax, increasing as the number of stores operated under one management were multiplied.

The North Carolina tax, recently upheld, provides a license fee of $50 on each and every chain store in excess of one. This method of fixing the license fees has also been approved by the United States Supreme Court.

The fact that the North Carolina law required no license fee from the operators of single stores was used by the opponents of the tax in an effort to show unlawful discrimination, but this viewpoint was not taken by the Federal Court.

As a result of these two decisions it seems fairly well established that chain stores are subject to reasonable license fees and that their control is within the power of the various states.

SAFETY FOR HUNTERS.

A facetious editor, impressed by the number of hunters wounded and slain through the mistakes of their brothers in the field, remarks that the safest plan for a hunter is to stay in the open, away from the woods, and wait for the game to come out for a straight shot.

In truth, as one reads of the hunters who are killed when they move the bushes, the danger of the sport becomes somewhat appalling. Tender-hearted editors can hardly refrain from urging the utmost caution on the part of all local nimrods, both on behalf of themselves and also for the benefit of any wayfarer in the woods who might become the target for some expert hunter.

A good rule for all hunters to observe would be to hold their fire until the quarry is plainly apparent. This would prevent the shooting of children, who might be picking berries in the vicinity and others who, inadvertently, move the bushes that are under the watchful eye of the overzealous devotee of the hunt.

Hard-boiled citizens wonder what Thanksgiving means.

It's about time for somebody to begin talking about what to do with Muscle Shoals.

It has now reached the point that any pedestrian leaves home with the idea that he may be taking his last walk.

There may be a depression in the country but thousands of the depressed are able to attend the big football games every week.

Japan, having sent her troops into Manchuria for "peace," now sends them into Mongolia. No doubt this is another peaceful move.

Too many bright young lads forget their day's work while dreaming about the huge fortune they are going to make in a few years.

As we see it, the time is about ripe for Bay St. Louis people to trade at home, co-operate with each other and get together to make this municipality succeed.

The prophets are now predicting the usual unusually cold winter, basing it on early appearance of the birds, flying south, heavy coats of fur on captured animals and other natural signs.

Being willing to spend money for advertising is merely the beginning of the conversion of a man who does not believe in it. There must be careful thought to all advertising campaigns if they are to accomplish profitable results.

This is the time of the year that you start out in the morning, prepared for a cold day, and about noon-time decide that you are wearing too much. You peel off, go home with a cold, yet the next winter that arrives hears you bragging about the "wonderful weather."

SOME GOOD ACCOMPLISHED.

AT the noon hour last Saturday the fifth session of the State Legislature held during Governor Bilbo's present administration was declared adjourned, and the weary lawmakers turned their faces homeward, some never to return to the capital as the representatives of the people whom they betrayed through the playing of politics rather than rendering the patriotic service they were elected to perform.

But, happily for the State, the closing session of the legislature was not wholly barren of good results, as a number of measures were passed which will be of great benefit to the people in this time of depression, chief among which was the enactment of a bill permitting the payment of State, county and municipal taxes in three installments—one-half February 1, one-quarter May 1, and the remaining quarter by August 1. The enactment of this particular piece of legislation will be most welcome by a large majority of the taxpayers as it is exceedingly doubtful if 75 percent of the property owners of the State could have paid their taxes in full on the last day of February.

Another measure passed was that for authorization of a $5,000,000 bond issue for highway construction which assures the State securing federal aid funds of equal amount and an early start on the program for highway improvement. The expenditure of ten million dollars for highway and road building will give employment to many hundreds of citizens who are in need of work at this time.

The Echo has not over-much faith in the relief promised in the passage of the cotton acreage reduction bill passed by the lawmakers, but sincerely hopes that it will prove as beneficial as its proponents claim it will.

Human nature is much the same and most cotton planters are more than apt to make every effort through fertilization and intensive cultivation to raise the usual number of bales if they anticipate a higher price for the staple, despite the reduction of acreage. When the 1932 crop is harvested it will be known just how the measure was regarded by the class of people in whose interest it was enacted.

Several other measures passed during the session will prove of real benefit to the State and her citizens, among which might be mentioned the enactment of the bill authorizing the issuance of bonds to take care of the outstanding bank deposit guaranty certificates, the payment of which is eagerly awaited by some twenty-odd thousand Mississippians who hold such certificates.

Governor Bilbo called the lawmakers into the session, realizing that something should be done in the way of emergency legislation to save the good name of Mississippi and for the relief of her people in a time of dire need, otherwise his administration would go down in history as the greatest failure ever recorded since the commonwealth was organized. He made a last desperate effort to avert such a calamity and while he was only partially successful in his efforts, The Echo gives him credit for what he did accomplish in his endeavor, as the session just ended was not barren of some good results and benefits to both the State and the people from whose pockets comes the money expended for its government.

JOIN THE RED CROSS.

THE annual roll call of the American Red Cross renews an opportunity to all loyal Americans to become members of this great organization through the contributions of one dollar or more.

That the Red Cross is needed in the life of this nation should be apparent to any thinking citizen of Hancock County and it is to be hoped that our people will appreciate the worth of the organization to the extent of contributing the number of members required by the quota here.

While the Red Cross receives its greatest publicity during great natural disasters, one should not overlook the persistence of its well-directed campaigns that continue at all times. These include first-aid, welfare work, nutrition campaigns and efforts to organize life-saving units in connection with water athletics.

Preeminently, however, in the public mind the Red Cross, as a peace-time organization, stands forth as the "Greatest Mother in the World" in times of fires, floods, hurricanes and such other sudden and tragic occurrences. It is worth the money of the members to have the assurance of knowing that a trained personnel stands ready to take charge of horror and disaster-stricken communities whenever the occasion arises.

The Echo is glad to add its endorsement to the recommendations of local leaders and express the belief that Hancock County will not fail to be identified with the American Red Cross for many years to come.

ARMISTICE DAY, 1931.

THIRTEEN years ago, on the 11th day of November, the world, sickened with war, welcomed with rapture the news of the Armistice, signifying the end of that terrific struggle.

Today, it might be proper for us to wonder just how far the nations of the earth have turned from war-like impulses and militaristic tendencies. That some progress towards peace has been made, through the League of Nations, the Kellogg-Briand Pact and other international agreements, cannot be denied by anyone cognizant of the happenings of the immediate past, but that war has been banished from the minds of men, or that it is no longer regarded as an ever-recurring threat, is not to be assumed for a minute in the light of even the most recent occurrences.

That the people of the United States were moved by idealism during the World War, which led many to believe that the great struggle was one to end wars is a fact of history but just as positive is the present conclusion that no such good fortune attended the termination of the great war.

Armistice Day, while observed as a memorial to the soldiers and sailors of this country who paid the supreme sacrifice, should also, in their names, keep alive the dream of a world freed from the dominion of fear and the spectre of further murderous struggles.

REVIEWS OF OUR NEWS

By Chicagoan

A Review of the News of Last Week's Echo.

CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 3.—Is Autumn really a succession of melancholy days in which Nature proclaims the inevitability of death, as one American poet so solemnly sang? Is it not rather a season of pleasant reverie when wellow memories play before us, even as departed Indians are said to dance in the Autumn twilight? The latter conception of Indian Summer has also been immortalized by a living American poet and artist who is really famous. Mrs. Ida Schwegge's picture of a "Sunset On The Coast of Maine" so vividly painted in her article of last week inclines me to the latter conclusion. And there was much more in the last week's Echo to justify the modern artist's portrayal of this season of the year.

To Bay St. Louis came the delegates to the annual convention of the Mississippi Branch of King's Daughters and Sons. As they sped along well maintained highways, the gathered harvests silently testified that Earth had done its share in the production of sustenance for all. Those who traveled at night, after the sun had dipped into the hazy west, heard the spirits of the departed inhabitants in the rustling leaves, and they saw them dance where here and there an outdoor fire gleamed in the twilight.

And it was life and fellowship that greeted these delegates upon their arrival. The nurses, under the direction of Mrs. C. E. Craft, presented a hospital dedicated to the service of all who find need to enter its comforting portals. The local circle of which Mrs. E. J. Leonard is president, left nothing undone which would add to the convenience and pleasure of the visiting delegates. As the convention opened, Mrs. A. F. Fournier, state president, delivered her address of welcome in words of eloquence that must have impressed all her listeners not only of the ability and sincerity of the speaker, but of the outstanding attributes of Bay St. Louis as a convention city. The scholarship of the city which was their host further impressed itself upon the delegates when at the banquet Bro. Peter, in simple yet eloquent language, praised the organization for its great work performed in the name of the same King to whom he has dedicated his life, an brought home sharply the lessons taught by the era of depression. Ah, yes, 'twas life, real life, that breathed from last week's accounts of that notable meeting.

Then as the summer nears its end, the work on the reconstructed Echo building was completed. The building was inspected by the architects who planned the improvements, and the structure formally accepted from the contractors by its owner, Chas. G. Moreau. Late returned from his rest cure with renewed vigor with which to attend to his many duties, our editor also is provided with a reconstructed and beautiful building. He in turn, presents to Bay St. Louis an improvement to its business section that stands out like a beacon light in the darkness of the present days.

Speaking of dark days, an editorial last week directed attention to the plight in which some large cities now find themselves. Chicago it was pointed out, has found it very difficult to meet its payrolls, and up to a few days ago, the teachers of the city had worked unpaid since last April. Due to a rather complicated set of circumstances . . . and influences . . . the real cause of Chicago's plight is known to but few in the city itself and naturally to a still smaller number residing at distant points. I do not know the exact percentage at the present time, but suffice it for me to state that a great portion of taxes levied during the past years have not been paid. Large real estate owners not only refused to pay their taxes, but they have secured injunctions restraining the city and county officials from securing any judgements against the properties as would be due in other places. The taxes are unjust, these owners maintain, so they refuse to pay and teachers and others go without their salaries. Only a week or so ago it was revealed that a certain large loop hotel, often patronized by Bay St. Louis visitors, owed the city some $300,000 in taxes. Due to the pressure of this unfavorable publicity, a portion of the tax was paid. The balance left for adjustment by courts or reviewing bodies. There are two sides to every question, but Al Capone learned what happens when a fellow fails to pay his Federal taxes.

Like Will Rogers, all I know is what I read in the papers. Last week I mentioned in this column that the Edison estate was worth less than one million dollars. In making the statement I relied on the contents of a news item appearing in the "world's greatest newspaper." A few days later this same newspaper, without further explanation, carried the announcement that a son of the inventor was instituting an action which if successful would

Harrison County Adds Assessment To Southwestern Gas Co.

During the November term, Harrison county board of Supervisors, Myrant Adams, representing the state tax collector appeared before the board requesting that an assessment of $75,000 per year be made against Southwestern Gas and Electric company in Harrison County outside the municipal limits, for the three years including 1928, 1929, 1930 showing a total assessment of $225,000. Legal representatives of the gas company appeared before the board opposing the assessment. The matter was taken under advisement.

TO OBSERVE ARMISTICE DAY, NOV. 11

President Hoover issues Proclamation Calling Upon People to Observe Day

A proclamation calling upon citizens of the United States to observe November 11 as Armistice Day with ceremonies pledging an effort "to perpetuate the peace of the world" was issued Monday at Washington by President Hoover.

"Whereas the eleventh day of November, 1918, marked the termination of the World War and the cessation of its destruction and suffering; and

"Whereas it is appropriate that recurring anniversaries of this day should be commemorated by exercises honoring those who gave their lives in the service of the country and dedicating ourselves to the attainment of the ideals of justice, freedom and peace for which they made a supreme sacrifice; and

"Whereas by concurrent resolution of the Senate and the House of Representatives, in 1926, the president was requested to issue a proclamation for the observance of Armistice Day;

"Now, therefore, I, Herbert Hoover, president of the United States of America, pursuant to said resolution do hereby order that the flag of the United States be displayed on all government buildings on November 11, 1931, and do invite the people of the United States to observe the day in their churches and schools and other suitable places, with appropriate ceremonies giving expression to our gratitude that peace exists and pledging ourselves to the effort to perpetuate the peace of the world and to cultivate relations of friendship and amity with all nations.

The BEACON of MEMORY

Lest We Forget

WHENEVER we think of Liberty we must think of our boys who sacrificed their lives that we might enjoy this blessed state of freedom. They believed in their country and they fought for their rights. Believe in your country today as they did fourteen years ago, and you will find, as they did, that your own land is worth fighting for and living in.

SPORTS AT STANISLAUS

TINY ROCKS UPSETS ST. STANISLAUS DAY SCHOOL WILDCATS.
ELEVEN 7-6 DAVE GLOVER SCORES TOUCHDOWN AFTER MARCH OF 55 YARDS.

The Tiny Rocks' well prepared little football team took the biggest and less efficient St. Stanislaus Day School boys over the bumps at the Stanislaus campus, last Friday afternoon. Capt. Dave Glover carried the ball across the Wildcat's goal line for the touchdown that gave the Tiny Rocks a start with 6 points. Little Fred Fayard added one point when he went around left end for the point after Glover's touchdown. Glover's run was one of 55 yards every inch of which was earned by a fast charging line and clicking set of backfield performers. This play came one the first play of the second quarter in one of the best schoolboy engagements that will be seen on the campus gridiron this season.

St. Stanislaus Day School had one golden opportunity to score in the third quarter but a fumble less than a yard from the goal line blew it away.

The fourth period seemed to be a one sided affair for the Wildcats. They profited by two fumbles and a 15 yard penalty to shove the pigskin over the Tiny Rocks' goal line for their sixth point. They lacked the punch to make the extra point. They kicked off and with a set of fumbles on both sides St. Stanislaus Day School finally got the advantage falling on the ball on the St. Stanislaus 4 yard line. They were held for down and the Tiny Rocks' defense of the Wildcats on their own 45 yard line as the final whistle blew.

The line ups:
Tiny Rocks—J. Filkins, LE; L. Towery LT; G. Giamelloni, LG; P. Laguerre, C; F. N. RG; L. Barber RT; W. Barber RE; D. Glover Q; F. Fayard LH; P. Mercadegh, T. Quincy, FB.

Wildcats—B. Redmann LE; B. Lucas, LT; R. Strong (c) LG; T. Thomas C; P. Taconi, RG; R. Johnson RT; C. Favre, RE; J. Strong Q; C. Kings-ton LH; U. Oliver RH; J. Oliver FB.

Score by quarters: 0 7 0 0
Wildcats 0 0 0 6

ROCKS BEAT JONES COUNTY AGGIES 25-0.

Last Saturday, Oct. 31, the Rocks-Aggies rambled over the Jones County Aggies to the tune of 25-0. Although the Aggies showed plenty of fight and possessed some real talent, Stanislaus just seemed to have more. In fact, 25 points' worth more.

Bobby Smythe more or less disappointed us Saturday by not tearing away from any of his customary long runs, which we expected. But the Aggies had some "he-men" on that line and thus, we suppose, Bobby's failure.

This was the last of our "practice" games. Not meaning to imply in any manner that all our previous games were easy. But from now on there are to be no more "soft spots" left on the schedule. Next Sunday, Commy High, of New Orleans ventures forth to assault the Rocks on the Stanislaus Stamping ground. It promises to be a great game, and if you want a little tip, get this: Be sure you will be there when they are between you and the ground, because by game time the green will be plenty-crowded.

Come on, let's all get out there and do some real cheering. Show the old grads that they didn't take all the good old spirit out of them when they left. Not by a long shot. Let's go and follow the cheer-leaders to the world!

ST. JOE VS. JUNIORS.

The Juniors beat the fighting team from St. Joe of Pass Christian today. McCollister, of the Pass won the toss and chose to receive. After successful line bucks they failed to make first down.

It then took the Juniors 4 downs to take the ball back, after Gonzales broke field running and the first touchdown. The second touchdown was scored when Gulletta ran off end for 25 yards.

In the second half (Dimples) Sandoz carried the ball off tackle for 13 yards for the third touchdown.

The most sensational play of the game was made by C. Gulletta when he received a punt on his own 5 yard line and ran 95 yards for a touchdown. I forgot to mention that perfect blocking and also the run helped a lot.

Gondales and Fagan featured in line bucks. Other who played a splendid game were "Tiny" Pisson, Quin, Smythe and Stakelum.

The Tax Collector and to this commission in accordance with the requirements of Section 3181 of the Code of 1930.

Ordered and adjudged, this 8th day of October, 1931.

COMMENT ON SPORTS BY SHERIDAN

FRISCH WINS AWARD.

A VALUABLE PLAYER.

"STEP-LADDER" BOUTS.

HARVARD AND THE NAVY.

BOXING AND BOXERS.

NOTRE DAME'S GREAT TEAM.

STAGG'S 40TH YEAR.

Naming the most "valuable player," a practice discontinued by the National League in 1929 and revived last year by a poll of baseball writers, this year awards the title to Frankie Frisch, captain and second baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals. Frisch, received 65 points out of a maximum of 80, being 10 points ahead of Chuck Klein, Philly outfielder, and 12 points ahead of Bill Terry, New York first baseman. No other player scored higher than 30 points.

Last year it will be remembered that Hack Wilson was selected by the unofficial poll and that his club recognized the award by giving him the customary $1,000. What happened to Hack this year is a matter of current information.

Frisch, everywhere recognized as a valuable player, has run close to the top in the valuable player poll several times. When it was begun in 1924, he finished third; in 1927, he was runner-up and also placed second in the unofficial award last year. His victory this year came with only one vote giving him first place but he piled up and won the title with five votes for second, one for fourth and one for eighth. The votes were tabulated on the basis of ten points for first, nine for second, and so on. The ballot was taken before the World Series and, therefore, play in the series is not reflected.

The eight players who were rated No. 1 included, besides Frisch, Terry, Klein, Haffey, Jimmy Wilson, Sparky Adams, Travis Jackson and Red Lucas. Four of the eight, you will observe were members of the Cardinals team, which may help to explain why they won the World Series. For those who like to have a record, we give a list of those who have won recognition as the most valuable player in the National League, with the explanation that the 1930 award was based on a poll conducted by the Associated Press and that for this year the one conducted by the Baseball Writers Association:

1924, Dazzy Vance, Brooklyn;
1925, Rogers Hornsby, St. Louis;
1926, Bob O'Farrell, St. Louis;
1927, Paul Waner, Pittsburgh;
1928, Jim Bottomley, St. Louis;
1929, Rogers Hornsby, Chicago.
1930, Hack Wilson, Chicago;
1931, Frank Frisch, St. Louis.

The New York Athletic Commission has ruled out a "step-ladder" fight between Primo Carnera and Paulino Uzcudun. That argument is that heavyweights should be matched physically and that Carnera should fight men as Campolo and other boxers do not need to stand on a soap box to reach his chin. Carnera and Uzcudun had been matched for a fight on November 13th but now it is hoped that Campolo will take Paulino's place against the ponderous Italian.

Paulino, like Sharkey, is over seven inches shorter and weighs 66 pounds less than the big Italian. He fought him at Barcelona, Spain, last winter, losing a close decision. He vigorously protested the cancellation of the bout and insisted that he could fight Carnera.

Following Harvard's unexpected 14-13 victory over the Army team, word comes of undergraduate opposition to the annual contest. However, the discussion centering around the same objection made by the Navy will amount to little in view of the fact that Harvard and West Point have a four-year contract. Some sentiment at Harvard is that it is unfair for the Army to permit graduated college football stars to play for three additional years in intercollegiate competition while other institutions allow only three years in all. Undoubtedly that is about all well taken but that is about all there is to say. The Army is and will continue to be a great attraction on the gridiron and will not lack suitable opponents.

Tony Canzoneri will defend his lightweight title on November 20, in a fifteen-round bout with Kid Chocolate, the spectacular Cuban. The battle may involve two other championships. Chocolate is the junior lightweight champion and Canzoneri holds the junior welterweight title. The National Boxing Association recognizes the two junior titles and if Canzoneri weighs under 130 pounds all three of the titles will be involved.

However, it is probable that only Canzoneri's titles will be at stake because he is expected to weigh in with his best ring weight—about 133 pounds.

Little word has been heard of Jack Dempsey in recent weeks and the prospect of seeing him in the ring this winter seems to be rather slim. The Manassa Mauler wants a $500,000 guarantee for his appearance at a time when his purse is $500,000. Incidentally, Tommy Loughran Philadelphia heavyweight recently won a ten-round fight with Johnny Risko, Cleveland veteran. Campolo, South American giant, knocked out Picuccio in the eighth round of their bout. The manifest physical advantages of Campolo were too much for his rival.

The Notre Dame team of 1931 is said to be as good as any and many declare it is more powerful and dangerous than the undefeated teams of 1929 and 1930 and the famous "Four Horsemen." Coach Ossie Solem, of Drake, following the stunning defeat suffered by his team, declared, "I have never seen quite the equal of that Notre Dame team—I mean teams. They had everything and I'm not trying to alibi when I say that I think it's the greatest football combination I have ever witnessed in action. We have been playing Notre Dame for six straight seasons now but I never before watched its teams display a greater versatility. No, not even in the days of Knute Rockne's great teams." Many newspaper men agree with Solem's judgment.

All sportsmen should appreciate the magnificent gesture of sentiment that carried the Yale football team to the mid-West stadium for the first time to play the University of Chicago, at Stagg field in 1892 to direct the Maroon's Athletics and is now celebrating his fortieth season as football coach. The white-haired director of Chicago's athletics was presented with a Maroon blanket, embellished with forty stars, but his portages could do nothing with the team of his Alma Mater and went down to defeat, 27 to 0.

MISS. LEGISLATURE IN SPECIAL SESSION 33 DAYS PASSES 89 BILLS

Of The Number Governor Says Only Twelve "Worthwhile"—Stormy Petrel of Mississippi Criticizes Opponents in Message to People.

The special legislative session is over but resentment of Governor Theodore G. Bilbo at the fifth partial defeat of administration program in four years lingers on.

The governor in a message "to the people of Mississippi," bid a final soliloquy to the warping solons by severely condemning Speaker Thomas L. Bailey and the Big Four of the House "for successfully blocking the work of the legislature for four years and retarding the progress of the state for a quarter of a century."

Conceding that the session which met in "emergency" assembly on Sept. 29, and fought through 33 days over general, local and private legislation of all kinds, had enacted 12 "worthwhile" measures among the 89 passed, the governor pointed to eighteen administration-urged acts which died either in legislative limbo or peacefully without consideration.

"Tom Bailey with his lack of committee and his Big Four and eighty-four organization ought to be happy and satisfied at the blocking of the work of the legislature for four years and retarding the development of the state for a half-century," he said.

Taxes Not Reduced.

The governor said that the legislature ignored its responsibility to alleviate taxation, and instead added $600,000 in added gasoline tax thru the $5,000,000 road bond bill to match federal aid. This bill, however, was included among those he designated "worthwhile."

Other measures in the favorable category were the $5,000,000 bond bill to redeem bank guaranty certificates, and the $6,000,000 short term note issue to cover the state deficit, neither of which received an offer at a state bond commission meeting Saturday; the agricultural credit corporation bill which will afford an estimated $10,000,000 for farmers loans through state credit corporations; the bill to amend the constitution, which was tabled through the Senate after the scheduled adjournment; modification of the statewide stock law; appeal form assessments against corporations by the state tax commission; also railroaded through over Senate protests on the final day, the cotton acreage reduction law; repeal of the road overseas law; provision for assignment of state, county and municipal tax liens; quarterly payment of taxes, and authorization of counties to refund county district and drainage bonds.

Omissions Pointed Out.

But the errors of omission were great, the governor found. The public utilities commission bill died, he said, because "too many members of the legislature are on the payroll of public utilities—Sillers, Kennedy, Bailey, et al"—members of the House Big Four. The bill, in amended form, however, passed the house, and died in the closing filibuster hours of the Senate.

Among other measures for whose death he criticized the legislature were: repeal of "the damnable nuisance tax," use of convict labor to establish a penitentiary in South Mississippi; extension of time of redemption in addition to cutting expense of tax sales; voting rights insofar as taxes are concerned, on payment of poll tax only; reinstatement of four state colleges suspended for asserted politicalization under his regime; regulation of cotton compress and storage rates; establishment of a state owned cement plant for highway construction; reduction of salaries from governor to the lowest point, even in drastically amended form, failed to weather a five-day Senate filibuster; changing the name of the state A. & M. College to Mississippi State College; creation of a director of unemployment, enactment of a law requiring legislators to disclose "their employment with public service corporations;" a moratorium for mortgages and a period for redemption after foreclosures; appropriation for small hospitals to care for additional charity cases; creation of a central state purchasing agency; repeal of the poll tax; and the reinstatement of the term of office and additional salary for Superintendent of the State Penitentiary Jim Williamson, whose activities have been subject to a House roving committee investigation, and the $5,000,000 supplementary road bond issue, to be prorated for farm relief work among the 82 counties.

The governor made personal and pointed criticism on the failure of each of those measures listed, measures which his opponents believed to be within the jurisdiction of the incoming Conner administration and not his own.

THIS WOMAN LOST 64 POUNDS OF FAT

Mrs. H. Price of Woodside, L. I., writes: "A year ago I weighed 190 lbs. I started to take Kruschen and now I weigh 126 and never felt better in my life and what's more, I look more like 20 yrs. old than the mother of 2 children, one 19 and the other 18. Every one of my friends say it's marvelous the way I reduced."

To lose fat with speed take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning—don't miss a morning—an 85-cent bottle lasts four weeks—get it at drug store in America. If not joyfully satisfied after the first bottle—money back.

CURRENT COMMENT

RADIO AND MOVING PICTURES NOT LIKELY TO BE DISCARDED.

Television is moving on toward commercial perfection, and our existing radio sets soon will have to be altered or replaced to accommodate it. The radio and the motion picture, however, are not likely to be soon discarded for this latest rival, since they give to recorded history, reality and vigor not to be found in the printed page, and accomplish more than providing cheer and convenient entertainment. Who would not be interested, for instance, in seeing Patrick Henry in action, and hearing his voice, as he declared that he desired liberty or death; and there is no irrelevance in the thought that out for delay in the field of invention we might be able to listen to the sermon on the Mount, and look upon the face of the Preacher.

WHAT GOOD FOR GERMANY WILL THE VISIT OF LAVAL BRING?

Premier Laval of France has just been in the United States, and Germany thinks that some good may come to her from the Premier's parley with the President. If anything for the benefit of Germany results from the conference, credit will be reflected upon the humanitarian motives of the French and Americans. Whether or not Germany turns out to be the material gainer, she has lost nothing in the way of respect in the eyes of the world by assuming that Gai-l and America no longer are her foes.

PRESENT ECONOMY WILL NOT DESTROY "OLD IRONSIDES."

It is announced that the present pressure of economy will not be carried to the point when the frigate "Old Ironsides" will have to be destroyed, which is a reassuring and comforting statement. Years ago a definite threat of sending the old ship to the bonfire was the cause of Holmes' famous poem. The vessel cannot last forever, but Mr. Holmes' words will be read when Old Ironsides is no more. The poem has outlived the poet, and it will outlive the generation of school boys who declaimed indignantly: "Aye, tear her tattered ensign down? Long has it waved on high."

MEANS OF PRODUCING REVENUE CANNOT BE DENIED

It is rumored that when Congress again convenes, it will consider placing a sales tax on autos. The bill will not be popular (few taxation measures are), but its effectiveness as a means of producing revenue cannot be denied. As an index to the magnitude of the army that would contribute to an auto sales tax when machines now on the road wear out, note that fifty-six thousand motor cars crossed the new George Washington Bridge between York State and Jersey in a single day.

A MONARCH IN EXILE PRESENTS A SADDENED SIGHT.

Ex-King Alfonso of Spain is under charge of high treason, preferred by some of his former subjects. A monarch in exile presents a saddening sight, even though he may have got what he deserved. The foolish hope and strive for a return of their old time power. The wise say, with Wolsey: "Farewell to the little good your dear me; farewell, a long farewell to all my greatness" and let it go at that.

WOULD BE ABLE TO STAND BEING "BORED."

A gangster boss lately on trial is said to have been bored as his counsel argued the legal points of his case. In view of the fact that he has no doubt been the cause of others being "bored" in a different sense and without opportunity for argument, he ought to have been willing to put up with the annoyance.

PREFER BREECHES POCKET FOR KEEPING MONEY SAFE.

Cracksmen blew a safe on a battleship and carry away two hundred dollars. There is some sentimental satisfaction to be found in the statement that only "staff funds" were taken. Who can imagine the traditional seaman putting his own money in a safe? The sailor has been stripped of most of the romance that formerly garbed him, but one is still free to picture the seafaring man as a ready spender, who prefers to keep his cash in his breeches pocket, ready for use.

FOOTBALL LIKE GAME OF LIFE CONTINUES ON.

A player on the Army football team is dead of a broken neck, in New Haven. Football is more perilous than the sword duels of the German universities, but since no calling or amusement is free from an accidental death toll, and since a football match seldom fails to fill the grandstands, the mourners will have to be content with sympathy, while the game of football, like the game of life, wherein death is certain, continues on.

PRIZE ESSAY OF BAY CITY BOY IN N. O. NEWSPAPER CONTEST

Copy of the Prize Winner That Brought Youthful Writer Ten Dollars In Cash.

The Echo below reproduces in full the newspaper essay of John B. Blaize, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald N. Blaize, of Bay St. Louis, conducted by the New Orleans Times-Picayune and which brought not only honor and recognition as the first prize but ten dollars in cash as a further substantial reward.

The contest was for the best story in what was considered the outstanding newspaper story of the week. John B. Blaize, senior, wrote the story, sent it in and then forgot about it, until the glad news came that he was the first winner in the contest. Here is the essay in full:

THOMAS ALVA EDISON

Thomas Alva Edison lived in a time of change. Shortly before his birth America was entering upon a new era, an era of vast change the age of machinery and invention. Edison's life was a witness to great changes in politics, customs, ideals and much mechanical improvement. America established its unity and world power and recognition from the world during his lifetime. Shortly before his birth and during his youth the nation was passing through a most difficult period. The year of 1837 was yet in the minds of many, the war with Mexico was then in full swing, and Southern politics were fraught with the question of slavery. He witnessed the growing prosperity of the nation from the time of the War between the States until it proved its utmost world power with the outbreak of worldwide war in 1914.

But other and more important changes were taking place during the lifetime of this great inventor. Machinery took its grip upon the nation. Locomotives, steamships, automobiles, all were aiding in increasing transportation and commerce. Electricity improved the mode of habitation and the habits of men. Electric lights illuminated the work of the kitchen, various uses have been made of this wonderful power—directed in many, many instances by the "Wizard of Menlo Park."

All these great strides in invention and science have made America foremost among the nations of the world, and to whom we look in gratitude for many of the comforts and pleasures we obtain through electricity but to Thomas Alva Edison whose passing is the greatest loss to the world.

HUGH WHITE'S SAW-MILLS AT COLUMBIA THING OF THE PAST

Lumber Company Ceases after Nineteen Years Work Following Cutting of Timber

The J. J. White Lumber Company's big saw mill plant, one of South Mississippi's extensive lumber manufacturing industries, last week closed after having been in continuous operation here for the past 19 years.

Hugh L. White, president and general manager of the business, came from McComb to Columbia almost 19 years ago, having cut the timber from the company's holdings in that section of Mississippi, and immediately took the lead in all matters pertaining to the upbuilding of Columbia and Marion county.

It had been known for several months that this industry, which had furnished employment for a large number of men for so many years, would close its business during the present month.

It is said that the company yet has a large tract of hardwood timbered land south of Columbia on which is situated much pine timber of the shortleaf variety, but because of the low price of all kinds of lumber and timber, this timber will not be cut at present.

JAMES DUNN TOPS "SOB SISTER" CAST AT A. & G. NEXT WEEK

"Bad Girl" Star Plays With Linda Watkins In New Fox Drama.

"Sob Sister," Fox Drama of an ambitious girl, who was too busy trading on the romances of others to recognize her own love affair until it had practically passed her by, which opens its local engagement at the A. & G. Theater, Sunday, is hailed as one of the year's most important pictures, and for several reasons.

First, it marks the second screen appearance of James Dunn who bounded into his film spotlight overnight in his history making screen debut in "Bad Girl."

Second, it introduces to moviegoers a new leading lady, twenty-one years old gorgeously blonde, a favorite of the Broadway stage, Linda Watkins.

Third, the picture is the first directed by Alfred Santell since his record breaking success, "Daddy Long Legs," with Mollie O'Day and Warner Baxter. After that picture Santell was given his choice of all the stories owned by Fox Films and from them he chose "Sob Sister."

The right of a girl to make use of a winning smile and perhaps a hint of possible affection to gain her ends in business competition and yet the dangers of this means of attaining success is a subject that Santell considers one of the most discussed topics of the times, and in "Sob Sister" he is said to present both sides of the question in unfolding one of the most unusual and yet most sincere and touching romances yet recorded for the talking screen. The film is reported by those who have already seen it as exceeding "Bad Girl" in heart touching appeal and vividness.

The large cast supporting James Dunn and Linda Watkins includes such celebrities as Merna Gombell, who played, Edna, the girl friend in "Bad Girl," Mollie O'Day and Howard Phillips in the other featured roles as well as George F. Stone, Sarah Padden, Eddie Dillon, Neal Hart, Lee Lindsay, Harry Berensford, among others. Edwin Burke, who wrote the sparkling dialogue for "Bad Girl," adapted "Sob Sister" for the screen from Mildred Gilman's novel of the same name.

MAYOR URGES CITY TO SUPPORT RED CROSS AND RALLY TO CALL

Says He Is Glad to Direct Attention of Citizenship To the Annual Roll Call

Mayor Chas. Traub, Sr., has issued a proclamation which he urged the residents of Bay St. Louis to lend their undivided support to the humanitarian work of the American Red Cross. The annual Roll Call and membership campaign will officially open November 11.

A total of 300 members has been set by the national organization as the goal for this community, according to Mrs. M. Juden, chairman of the membership campaign for the Bay St. Louis Chapter, who regards this goal as a challenge to the civic pride of this community.

"I am glad to direct the attention of the citizenship to the annual Roll Call of the American Red Cross November 11 to November 26, and to urge that all rally to the support of this great national institution," said Mayor Traub to The Echo.

"May I remind our people of Bay St. Louis that the Red Cross exists solely by individual memberships. Without those memberships it would be unable to function in time of need. The carrying out of its extensive program would be impossible without the public's support. Such a humanitarian service must not be slackened by failure of the people to respond quickly and generously."

"The American Red Cross is a Congressionally chartered and semi-governmental agency. This year marks its Fiftieth year of service to humanity. It occupies a unique and necessary place in the welfare of our nation. Every adult of Bay St. Louis can give freely of support in full confidence that every dollar placed with the Red Cross will be multiplied in usefulness," concluded the city's chief executive who is interested in the cause, the same as every other good citizen of this community.

The simple justice of putting all forms of transportation on an equal basis of regulation is generally conceded. However, that is not the only reason why they should be equally regulated. The controlling reason is one of public economy.

In order to have an efficient national system of transportation giving all the people the best service at the lowest total cost, every form of transportation must be used to do the work for which it is best fitted.

Fitness is determined by comparing service and rates, and such comparisons are sure to be misleading when there is inequality of regulation.

It is in the public interest, therefore, to require all forms of transportation to pay their own way, as the railroads do, and to be regulated in the same ways and to the same extent that the railroads are.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

7 TONS OF BRILLIANT COAL EQUAL 8 TONS OF ORDINARY COAL

You get more coal—most heat—and least ash when you buy Brilliant coal than almost any other coal produced. More coal because Brilliant is so light that 7 Brilliant tons equal 8 of ordinary coal in bulk. More heat because every ton of Brilliant has 15,000 heat units. Least ash—because Brilliant won't make a big saving on your home heating bills this winter.

It Really Doesn't Pay To Try To Do Without It

The telephone is such a familiar part of daily life that its convenience and value are often overlooked until it is out of service.

This is the experience of those who discontinue their service for one reason or another. They soon find that the small cost of the service has been repaid many times each month in convenience, in time and actually in money saved.

Telephone users constantly tell us that the cheapest service they can buy today, compared with its value, is telephone service. There have doubtless been times in your own experience when your telephone service has proved priceless—when the ability to call instantly a doctor, a policeman or the fire department, could not be measured in terms of money.

But it is not alone the emergencies that give the telephone its true value. There are the commonplace of every day conversations—the twenty-four hour a day convenience in the home, the shop, the office, whenever you wish two-way communication with anyone almost anywhere.

On reflection you will doubtless agree that it really doesn't pay to try to do without it.

MAJOR JUDKINS PLANS TO SELL GOAT MILK TO DENIZENS OF GULF COAST

Bay St. Louis Resident With Farm in Harrison County Demonstrates Successful Diversification on Sixty-Acre Tract of Cut-Over Land.

By CLARKE B. WILSON
In Mississippi Guide.

One of Harrison county's newest, and undoubtedly most interesting farms is that of Major William Judkins, U. S. Army, retired.

Major Judkins, who comes from Virginia, has selected a beautiful tract of Harrison county's cut-over land to the east of Lyman, comprising something over sixty acres, which he is developing in a most interesting fashion.

A part of a high hill, fronting on the highway to the north, circled with a green glade the rest of the way around, containing a neck of the glade in the western half put here by nature to be made into a lake by man, is the lay of the land. A home place, a thing of beauty and interest, a profitable enterprise—that's it, when developed.

Satsumas

Improvements are being made rapidly. To the front, on the east, a 1700-tree Satsuma grove is being planted. It is Major Judkins' chief interest. Holes are now being dug for the trees, which are to be set during the month of February. "Satsuma oranges can be grown here successfully and I am going to have a paying grove right here," declared Major Judkins in a determined and knowing tone of voice. "The thing is, one must just not get discouraged too easily."

Circling the orange grove and hill-top on the west is long winding driveway extending to the site for the house which is to be built in the not distant future. Down below, in the neck of the glade is a pretty little lake, already completed and stocked with green trout—one of Major Judkins' hobbies. Morning visitors to the lake are wild ducks, cranes and other water fowls. And not so long ago, a sly old alligator was found swimming around among the fish, admiring the lake, and attempting to take it over for his home. To this, Major Judkins said "no" with one well placed shot from his pistol. Two alert police dogs stand guard to prevent any other intrusion.

Goats

Farther west is a pasture for Major Judkins' pony, his couple, a prize-winning, registered Hereford and a herd of more than thirty milk goats. Some of the goats are being milked now, but before long Major Judkins intends to have his herd built up in numbers to the extent that he will have forty regular milkers all the time each giving a gallon or more of milk a day. The common goat crossed with a fine Nubian stock, is the kind. The pure-bred milk goats are not adapted to this climate, according to Major Judkins' experience with them here, so he is breeding his own stock which prove to be well adapted.

All the milk will be sold on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, where a ready market is found, and can be built up. Goat milk is a valuable product, and especially to babies, sick people, and invalids, it being more nourishing than cows' milk. Looks like Mahatma Gandhi's famous drink and food will become popular in Mississippi!

Strawberries

Major Judkins is now preparing land for several acres of strawberries which are to be planted in November. In addition, and at the proper time, large plantings of radishes will be made. The strawberries and radishes will be shipped through the Harrison County Farmers' organization, of which Major Judkins is president.

A keen observer of soils, trees, plants and animals, Major Judkins goes at his work as a skilled scientist in a great laboratory. To him farming is a science, a science of soils, plant and animal foods, and proper care and attention. Success without such a recognition is almost impossible or a mere occasional happen-so. Nothing is being left to a happen-so on Major Judkins' farm.

Major Judkins, who resides at the Weston Hotel, this city, and spends most of his time at his interesting farm on the G. & S. I. Road, over in Harrison county, is successfully experimenting in south Mississippi and his work has proven both of value and interest, as the foregoing will show.

BAY BAND TO BROADCAST

SUNDAY OVER STATION WGCM

Bay St. Louis Juvenile Band, Miss Louise Armstrong, directress, will broadcast next Sunday afternoon between the hour of 3:15 and 4 o'clock, over station WGCM, at Gulfport. Local fans and others will "tune in" and hear this little band of artists. Give the Bay St. Louis little ones the proper attention. A few telephone messages will be proper tribute and appreciation.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Ososnach have returned home after a two-month absence, during which time they travel extensively, going from New Orleans to New York by steamer, thence to Boston, various points in Canada. Then visiting their son, Mr. A. J. Ososnach and family, at Cincinnati and their daughter, Mrs. Harlow Ballard, and family, at Memphis, Tenn.

Local Western Union Manager to Be Transferred to Oxford, Miss.

Miss Lellen Davis, resident manager for the Western Union Telegraph Company, will leave Bay St. Louis within the next few days for Oxford, Miss., to which place she has been transferred as resident manager and which change comes to her as a deserved promotion, a recognition to which she is richly entitled.

Miss Davis, originally from Ocean Springs, has held the local post for the past three years. During that time she has given efficient and courteous attention and her departure is noted with regret.

"While my new position is a decided promotion," said Miss Davis, "I leave here reluctantly. It was a pleasure to work here. Everybody was so congenial and my work was pleasant. Surely, I will never forget Bay St. Louis."

Miss Lucille Scharr, transferred from Rockwood, Tenn., will succeed Miss Davis.

STANISLAUS COLLEGE ECHOES

Friday night Brother Peter came into the Small Study Hall and told the new boys, who were afraid, that there would be no initiation on Halloween night but he had to repeat it for some because they couldn't be lieve their ears.

So along rolls Saturday night, the night of goblins, witches and Fairies and as we entered the gym our need to be ghosts rushed upon us. We soon made short work of them then the lights came on and behold the stage looked like an apple orchard—apples, apples and more apples all strung up on strings. Then the fun started. Brother Vincent chose some boys to come up and try to get an apple off a string. Honorable C. J. Stockton was the first to succeed in getting an apple. In the apples were pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters. (No one got a quarter). After that we tried ducking for apples—any way some of us did it. The difference between the most attractive especially when Ty Cobb was in it. There were many other less interesting tricks that were tried.

The Juniors are to play this evening against St. Joseph's of Pass Christian and their coach is afraid they will have a hard time to beat this team.

The Juniors have excellent prospects of a good team in Stakelum, Gonzales, Fagan and B. Quinn. They are the most valuable men on the team; just the same there are other men besides these that can be relied upon.

We just can't get J. Duffilo to tell us who his best girl friend is, he is as tight as a clam when you ask him who she is. The same applies to Smythe.

Mr. Sheehy was too tight to buy an Echo this week but just the same we have decided to honor him by saying that he did a very rare thing the other morning, when he took a bath in the coffee, so we now know that the age of miracles has not passed.

We didn't quite understand why Vail is called long Ears, so we will call upon J. Duffilo to give his reason for wondering why he calls him that.

SODALITY NEWS.

There was a feeling of disappointment among the boys of the Sodality Saturday. The St. Joseph's Academy were to be visitors but failed to arrive. We extend them a welcome here, and ask them please not to fail to come Saturday.

J. B. Blaize gave a speech on "What is Purgatory" and very impressive one it was. In his talk he explained the best way of helping the Souls in Purgatory and how they may help us.

The prize for the best composition on "The Sacrifice of the Mass" was won by Melvin Johnson. Matherne talked on "The Fears that keep us from Holy Communion."

Under announced that there would be a contest as to the best report given from the pamphlets on the book rack. The contest is open to all but officers of the Sodality.

A Study Club was formed and volunteers chosen as follows: Linam, Andrade, Loch, Paparone, Colbert, Mozart, McCreary, with Felchitto, presiding. The purpose of this club is to read the pamphlets from the book rack and talk on them.

Schneckenberger volunteered to explain why his Mission collections exceeded all others. He said the secret was in the fact that his class was not as tight as the Graduates. Plink says persistency is the best method. Andrade who collects from the Commercial Class agreed with Schneckenberger about the Graduates.

Roth gave the results of the Mission Committee. Brother Edmond impressed the boys very much with a very good talk. He explained the need of doing something for the Poor Souls in Purgatory and he also suggested that the Football game be dedicated to the Poor Souls. While talking about football he ran upon the word block and stopped as though he had reached an impassable barrier. We wonder why? He also talked on the Feast of All Souls and reminded the boys that the month of November is dedicated to All Souls.

WE WONDER WHY—

Sustendahl is called "sponge-brain" an dyet he's "just a gigoal". Jarrau should wear a glass hat. Piker can't prove that he won two boxing medals.

Loch gets those "sugar-foot" letters. Laborde likes blondes when a certain brunette isn't around.

Dees has attained such a "ripe old age".

Texas knows so much and yet so little about "hydrogen".

Millet is afraid to collect a certain debt.

Colvert is so alone in the study-hall. Tall isn't such a "hot-shot" after all.

Einstein and Levy have enough equipment for another war.

Ty Cobb, our crooning favorite, has lost his voice.

R. Roth is getting so extravagant lately.

Kahally just can't get "peppy". Daigle's sole ambition is to be a "ladies man."

Popeye and Brown can't get along together since "she" came into their lives.

The women just won't let Baquet alone.

Ames is too lazy to get out of the foot prints he made 10 years ago.

Esquivel and Motty are two bodies with the same mind.

Alaimo has grown so cautious, when he found out that capone was "on the spot".

Hanson is called worm.

Ambition Loch thinks he is "the big

SELLERS SCHOOL REPRESENTED AT GULF COAST FAIR

Sellers Looking Forward to Friday 13th Occasion Opening Basketball Season

Sellers was well represented at the Gulf Coast Fair, Friday, October 30, 1931. Four of the trucks made the trip carrying pupils from the Fifth grade through the High School.

Eleven booths were vacant due to various reasons. Sellers plans to get outstanding recognition next year. Mr. Williams, the State Supervisor, was a visitor at Sellers last week spending the day with Mr. Barker and his agricultural boys.

Mr. Everett spent Wednesday observing the work in the classrooms. Mrs. Bradford Piece Davidson, State Missionary worker, was also here for a day. She made some very interesting talks to the little people.

Sellers is expecting a large crowd here Friday, November 13th. The opening game of the Basketball season will be played between the "Flying Five" of Sellers and the Dedeaur Quintet.

Honor Roll for October.

The pupils who attained the Honor Roll for the month of October are as follows:

12th grade—Lee Spiers and Herman Saucier.

10th grade—Ethelberta May and Vidale Wilson.

9th grade—Henrietta Bond.

8th grade—Evelyn Harrel.

7th grade—Ida Dedeaur.

6th grade—Edwin Duncan and Fred Duncan.

5th grade—Bessie Shaw.

2nd grade—Lois Ladner, Lorian Harrel, and Oscar Shaw.

1st grade—John Leslie Harrell, Charles Ladner, Bryan Lizana and J. C. McVay.

Primary—Juanita Shaw, Elder Maron Roberts Shaw.

The fifth and sixth grades made every effort to make the Honor Roll, but only three succeeded in reaching that standard.

The pupils of the third and fourth grades have been studying about Thanksgiving Day and its origin. They enjoyed immensely "The Story of the Pilgrims." More stories and poems will be used as the Holiday approaches.

Next week they plan to decorate the room in order to impress better yet the spirit of the season. They will use appropriate blackboard borders and window decorations.

The third grade pupils are struggling to master the lower multiplication table. Before the year is out they hope to have acquired a complete knowledge of them all.

Later in the year a table match will be held between the third and fourth grades.

Last week the Primary Children enjoyed making black cats, witches, bats and Jack-O-Lanterns for Halloween. Pupils in this department are now beginning to make Thanksgiving decorations.

President Hoover on Tuesday proclaimed Thursday, November 26, a day of national Thanksgiving for the advantages enjoyed despite a "measure of passing adversity."

ALUMNAE TO BE CONGRATULATED—HALLOWE'EEN TEA ENJOYED BY ALL.

The Hallowe'en Silver Tea given by S. J. A. Alumnae last Thursday proved a most interesting diversity and was heartily enjoyed by the large number of guests who attended it.

The spacious S. J. A. Gym was in full Hallowe'en attire, pumpkins, witches and cats were everywhere in evidence and the basketball goal in front of the stage served as a perch for a huge grinning Jack-O-Lantern wearing a jaunty black hat.

Refreshments served by the Seniors of S. J. A. were delicious and the program was most interesting.
